

The Re-use of Industrial Buildings in East Lancashire

Accrington - 18th Century 'Jenny' Shop

Conversion to housing

Helmshore - 19th Century Spinning Mill

Conversion to museum

Helmshore - Textile Museum

Displays and machinery on the upper floor

Conventional displays on the ground floor

Accrington - 19th Century Spinning Mill

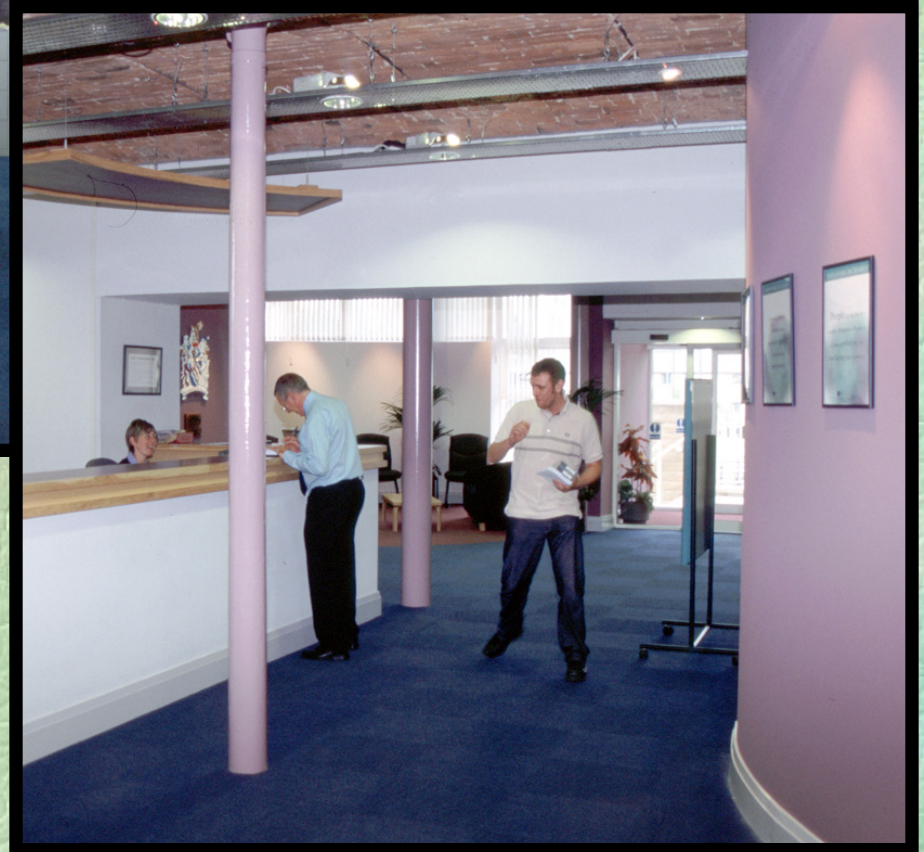

Conversion to council offices

Accrington - Council Offices

Office and reception

Blackburn - Canal Warehouse

Conversion to offices and environmental centre

Blackburn - 19th Century Flour Mill

Before conversion to offices

After conversion

Blackburn - conversion to private offices

Partial demolition

New access stairwell

Oswaldtwistle - 19th Century Spinning Mill

Entrance to mill shops and retail area

Mill gardens

Oswaldtwistle - visitor centre and mill shop

Shops in former weaving shed

Oswaldtwistle - visitor centre and mill shop

Craft industries

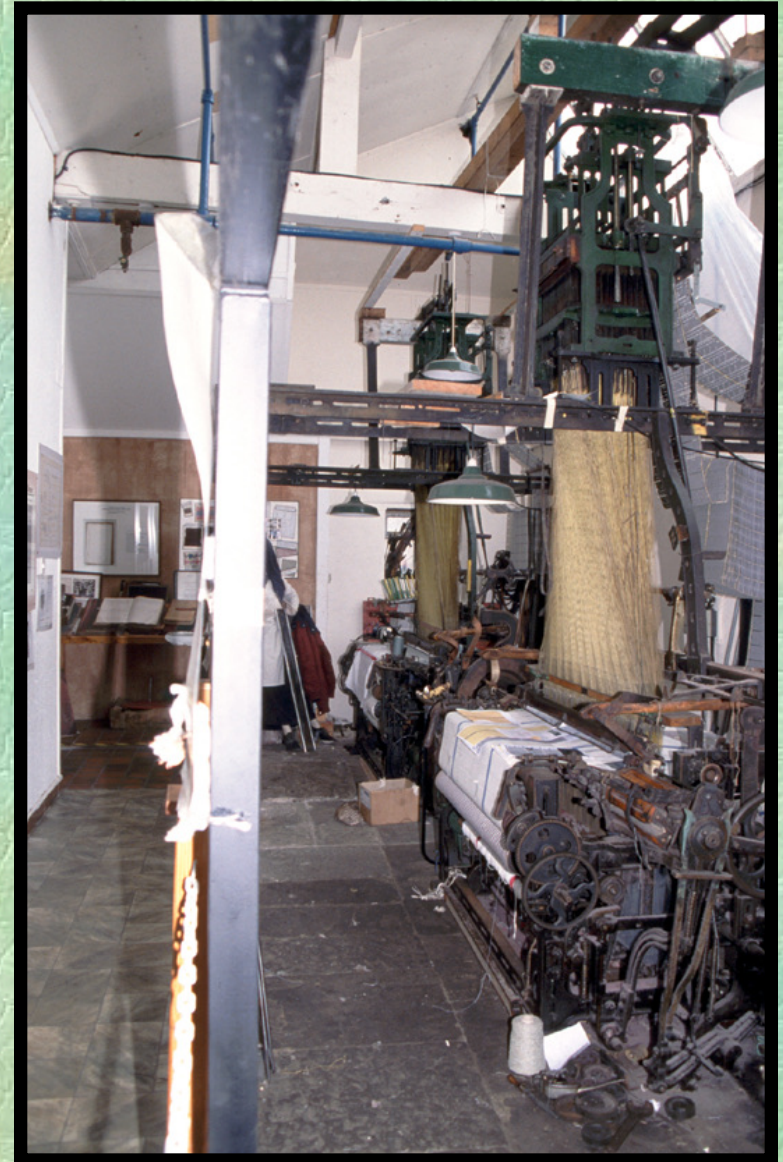

Community displays

Oswaldtwistle - visitor centre and mill shop

Café

Museum

Accrington - 20th Century Spinning Mill

Weaving shed converted to furniture shop

Accrington - Textile Machinery Factory

Conversion to offices, hotel and restaurant

Entrance and new extension

Accrington - offices, hotel and restaurant

Reception area and stairwell

Accrington - offices, hotel and restaurant

Café used for student training

Before conversion

Blackburn - Canal Warehouse

Before conversion

After conversion

Blackburn - offices and pub

Reception

Meeting room

Blackburn - offices and pub

Stairwells

Oswaldtwistle - 19th Century Spinning Mill

Fire damage to historic mill

